

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY SUPPORTS THE STEPPING UP INITIATIVE TO REDUCE THE NUMBER OF PEOPLE WITH MENTAL ILLNESSES IN JAILS

WHEREAS, the Santa Barbara County Board of Supervisors recognize jails have become de facto psychiatric facilities nationwide with more than 2 million individuals with serious mental illnesses admitted each year; and

WHEREAS, an estimated three-quarters of individuals with serious mental illnesses in jails also have substance use disorders; and

WHEREAS, jails spend two to three times more on individuals with mental illnesses, yet fail to see improvements to public safety, recidivism rates, or individuals' recovery; and

WHEREAS, keeping individuals out of jails and on the road to recovery requires a collaborative approach between all criminal justice agencies and mental health and substance use treatment agencies; and

WHEREAS, the Stepping Up Initiative encourages county leaders to designate or convene a diverse team of leaders and stakeholders to carry out a six-step planning process that can yield measurable reductions in the number of adults with mental illnesses cycling through the nations jails; and

WHEREAS, the Initiative provides sheriffs, others with jail authorities, and other team members with no-cost distance-learning opportunities, peer-to-peer exchanges, expert guidance, and a suite of resources to carry out these county-led plans; and

WHEREAS, the Initiative promotes crisis intervention team training and other specialized law enforcement responses that are supported by community-based resources; and

WHEREAS, the Initiative brings together not only state and local policymakers and purse-string holders, but also ensures the voices of people with mental illnesses and their families are heard; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Santa Barbara County Board of Supervisors actively support the work of the Stepping Up Initiative that is led by the National Association of Counties, the Council of State Governments Justice Center, and the American Psychiatric Foundation to make more effective use of strained budgets and safely reduce the number of adults with mental illnesses in jails by connecting them to community-based treatment and services when possible.
